MAGNATES BOOT'EM TOO, BUT SOCIAL ERRORS DON'T COUNT IN RECORDS

MISTAKES FESTOON

The Ivory Market, Louisville, Ky, Dec. 6.—The banquet of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, which was held here to-night, was slightly marred by the absence of the guest of honor, Mr. Honus Wagner. Ou investigation it was found that the committee had forgotten to invite him, which was considered in the nature of a social error by all present.

The situation became somewhat tense until Mr. Barney Dreyfus of the Pittsburgh Pirates explained that Mr. Wagner would not have been able to attend anyhow. It seems that one of the bridges over the Rappahannock had weakened under the strain.

However, San Antonio has had a chance to repent and promises to do better this time. Again there will be four games with the White Sox in San I should have been able to eliminate, its people, its hospitality and—above all—its golden gate receipts.

"The Giants will break all records out there if they come to California," they come to California, they come to California, they come to california, they come to California, they come to work in larger cities. The Kid, I to be said, is no piker in the Superstition and Magistrate McQuade fondled those financial possibilities and were on the verge of saying "California it is," and then McGraw came out firmly for San Antonio.

The deal for Pitcher Jakie May will be closed definitely in New York. It seems that Ed Maier, the Vernon mag-nate, who must sign the papers, is at-tending a brewers meeting at New York. This news excited much jealousy York. This news excited much jealous among the other lyory buyers and dealers. There is a move on foot to have the next session held concurrently with a brewer's concress. Mr. Barrow spent a busy afternoon watching the boards and noticing the ivory prices fluctuate, buying and selling with outward calmness and deliberation after whispered conferences with Miller Huggins, the demi-tasse manager of the Yankees. Mr. Barrow bears up well under the nervous strain.

whitepered conferences with Miller Huggins, the demi-tasse manager of the Yankees, Mr. Barrow bears up, well under the nervous strain.

With the session of the ivory market drawing rapidly to a close August Herrimann, the burgomelator of Cincinnani, is pressing your correspondent to revisit him at his burnonial castle on the upper Ohio. The burgomelator is one of the most enthusiastic hosts in the United States, but unless the victins of like hosts, but unless the victins of like hosts are not able to last long under the burgomelator's bill of fars.

The situation regarding the alleged truspey of Ban Johnson, president of the American League, remains unchanged. It has not ruffled to any perceptible extent the judicial caim of Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis. There is a rumor to the effect that when Ban is haled into court the sentence will be something like "$50 or thirty days."

Something of a sensation was caused by the report that a Toronto syndicate was allout to purchase the Boston Red Sox and transfer the franchise to the Canadian city. It is said that this report was circulated merely to built the vivory market. Mr. Henry Frazee, deep in the lobby of the Seelbach without the sid of a megaphone.

A Gift thought from Knox

MINE TIES

WE SUGGEST giving a titles the recipient to make his own selection. A few KNOX HATS

KNOX GLOVES

KNOX SPORT SHIRTS

However many things to wear a man may have hanging in his wardrobe or tucked away in his bureau drawers, it is a safe wager that his supply of hats is slim.

A smart, new hat always makes an acceptable gift for a man, but it is doubly acceptable when it bears the style and character which is built into it alone by the famous hatter named Knox.
